Salisbury Immigrants:

Among the immigrants who came to America in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries, according to the records of Colonel Chester of London, England, as ascertained from various family sources in this country, were several representatives of the ancient Salisbury family from the town of Llewenev, County of Denbigh, in Wales, showing its early origin.

JOHN SALISBURY of LLANRHAIDR, near the city of Denbigh, came to America between the years 1630 and 1640. He was a descendant of HENRY SALISBURY, second son of Henry Salisbury, Heir of Llewenev.

Descendants of William Salisbury of Swansea

- I - William Salisbury, the first of this line who came to America from England. He was born in Wales, doubtless in Denbighshire, son of John Salisbury of Llanrhaidr. Wales, 14th Generation. He disposed on May 12, 1656 that he was 34 years of age, and if this be true he was born in 1622. He was in Dorchester as early as 1648. He was for a time herdsman of the town cattle. He settled in Milton, formally part of Dorchester and he signed the agreement regarding the parsonage land May 18, 1664. He removed to Swansea, Mass. as early as 1671, being the first of the name in the town.

A list of the men of Swansea, eight soldiers recorded at Plymouth, includes the name of WILLIAM and JOHN Salisbury. They were the first victims of King Phillips war. Both were buried June 24, 1675. John was doubtless the unmarried son of William.

William married Sussannah, who was admitted to full communion at the Dorchester church, May 7, 1677, and was dismissed to the Milton church Sept. 18, 1681.

"DAVID SALISBURY" "Noted family of Rhode Island descent and heritage, migrations into Western New York, and into remoter regions; achieving success, and honoring the name they bore" as recorded by Percy P. Salisbury, of Minn.

"Among the Salisbury families of New England times was a worthy progenitor who bore the name of David, or of Stephan, as some of his descendants have thought, who was recorded to have lived in Gloucester, Rhode Island in 1757, and in Connecticut in 1805, and to have died in Utica, New York. Although his personal record, as afforded by his descendants is meager, the authenticity of the family genealogy is beyond question.

The family of this Salisbury progenitor emanating from Massachusetts, comprised five sons: (1) John, who was born in Gloucester on July 15, 1757, and died in Canandaigua, New York, on Feb. 18, 1837; the father of a large family. (2) Marmaduke, who was married and resided in Gloucester. (3) Vail, who was a member of the Gloucester Grenadiers in 1792, and spent his life in his native town. (4) William, of whose life and career no record is afforded. (5) Richard, who was a Gloucester Grenadier in 1792, and in 1830 was living in New York.

JOHN SALISBURY: The oldest son, John Salisbury, was married twice, and in 1802 migrated from Gloucester to Canandaigua, taking with him all his family except his two oldest sons, Hiram and John. He married his first wife, Freelove Herendeen, in Smithfield, R. I. on Dec. 10, 1777; and his second wife, Mary Dean, in Gloucester, on Nov. 2, 1796. Freelove Herendeen was born in Smithfield on Nov. 8, 1759, and died in Gloucester on April 26, 1796, the mother of seven children.

MARY DEAN was born in Smithfield on May 29, 1776, and died in Fitchburg, Wisconsin, in Feb. 1854, the mother of eleven children. John Salisbury enlisted in 1776, and served the Revolution; was engaged in the battle of White Plains, and was granted a war pension.

To John Salisbury and Freelove (Herendeen) Salisbury, were born five sons and two daughters, all of whom but the oldest son were born in Gloucester as follows: (1) Hiram, b. in Smithfield on April 29, 1779, m. Miss Ross, who died in 1832. He was living in Burrillville, R. I. in 1838, where he died on August 24, 1860. (2) John, b. on March 27, 1782, and married Rhoda Blackmar, a cousin, in March 1811, for his first wife; and Isabel Ross, dau. of Seth Ross, in 1830 for his second wife. At the time of his first marriage he lived in Smithfield where he was a farmer. In March, 1814 he moved to Stafford, Conn. where he purchased a farm of 34 acres and buildings, for $700. After his second marriage he lived on the Ross place at Burrillville, R. I. (3) Smith Hamilton, born on April 23, 1786. m. Nancy Hyde in 1810 at Canandaigua, for his first wife, and Flora Case in 1830, for his second wife. He died in Rochester on January 24, 1832. (4) Hezekiah Alexander, born on February 24, 1789, married Betty Osborne for his first wife, at Clarence, New York, on Sept. 25, 1815; and Phebe Osborne for his second wife, at Erie, on September 6, 1829. He died in Buffalo on March 14, 1856, with burial in High Street cemetery. (5) David, b. on Jan. 22, 1793, and d. on March 13, 1796. (6) Rachael, b. Dec. 10, 1795. m. Pascal Panora Pratt at Buffalo in 1816, and died at Tarrytown, New York on March 23, 1870, with burial in Forest Lawn cemetery, Buffalo. She had a son, Elon Galusha Pratt, who was born in 1821, and died in 1882 in St. Louis, Missouri.

Smith Hamilton Salisbury went to Buffalo in 1811 with his brother Hezekiah Alexander, and together they engaged in a newspaper enterprise. He had a son, Guy Hyde Salisbury, b. in Canandaigua on Dec. 25, 1811, and died in Buffalo on Sept. 5, 1869.

II - To JOHN and MARY (Dean) SALISBURY, the issue of his second marriage, seven sons and four daughters were born. Three in Gloucester and eight in Canandaigua where the family settled in 1802, as follows: RUSSELL*, Nov. 16, 1797, was twice married; Susan Bunnell and Susan Springer, and died in 1856. (2) Amasa, Feb. 3, 1799, married Sarah Spear, and died in 1872. (3) Deborah, March 29, 1801, and married Mr. Hovey. (4) WILLIAM, March 10, 1803, died April 6, 1863. (5) Sarah, April 25, 1805, and died in 1820. (6) David, Feb. 13, 1807, and died in Illinois in 1845. (7) Earl H., Oct. 23, 1808, and died in Ohio in 1882. (8) Nancy, July 30, 1812, m. (11) Timothy D. born May 30, 1819 and died in Canandaigua in 1821.

The records of other members and generations of the original David or Stephan Salisbury of Rhode Island, which comprises many descendants and collateral branches, have been preserved by Miss Winifred Salisbury of Cleveland, Ohio, a representative of the fifth generation.

Augustus Harrison Salisbury, oldest son of Amasa and Sarah (Spear) Salisbury was born in Canandaigua on July 22, 1840. He married Mary Pritchard on Dec. 23, 1868, and died at Minneapolis, Minn. on August 27, 1893. Their son Percy Pritchard Salisbury was born in Mazomanie, Wis. October 6, 1869. "Chancy Salisbury, a highly respected resident of Bath Township, Summit County, Ohio, who was born on the farm on which he lives, where he has 78 acres of valuable land, is one of the oldest agriculturists of this section. His birth took place March 10, 1830, and he is a son of WILLIAM and Sylvia (Attrill) Salisbury.

Both parents of Mr. Salisbury were born in New York State. WILLIAM SALISBURY came to Bath Township in 1827, where he remained a year, assisting settlers to clear their land and begin its cultivation. He found the country so desirable that he decided to establish here a home of his own and made the long journey back to his native place in order to marry. The young couple bravely started in a belated April snow storm, but the snow melted before they had covered the distance and they completed the journey to their new home in a wagon.

WILLIAM SALISEURY built a modest log house on his land, having bought 75 acres of the present farm, and then began its clearing and subsequent improvement. At a later date he bought 45 acres on the opposite side of the road. He and his wife lived on this farm during the remainder of their lives, dying honored and esteemed in their community. William Salisbury's death took place April 8, 1868. His wife died Feb. 24, 1867. They had seven children, the three survivors now being JOHN, residing in Wisconsin, aged 79 years; Chancy, who has reached his 77th year; and William, residing in California, who is aged 71 years. Those deceased are Olive, who was the wife of Joseph Manly; Peter, Mary, and Russell.

"WILLIAM S. SALISEURY is numbered among the prominent agriculturists of Richland County, which has been his home from the time of his nativity, and he is the owner of a fine landed estate in Willow Township, being a member of one of the honored pioneer families of that section of the county.

He is the son of John Salisbury, who was one of the early settlers of Willow township and who was born in Summit County, Ohio, May 11, 1828, being reared to the sturdy discipline of the farm and receiving a common school education.

March 14, 1850, was solemnized the marriage of John Salisbury and Rosanna Willey, the latter having likewise been born in Summit County May 10, 1828. They remained in that county until 1856 when they came to Wisconsin and located in Richland County.

Mr. Salisbury purchased land in the southeast quarter of section 35, Willow Township, and there erected his primitive log house in the forest, after which he set himself vigorously to the task of reclaiming a farm in the midst of the sylvan wilds. In 1864 he bought land in the southwest quarter of the same section, the same having been entered from the government by Henry Cushman. He removed to this farm, taking up his abode in the log house which had been erected by Mr. Cushman. In 1883 he erected the substantial frame residence which now adorns the homestead. He attained to distinctive success as a farmer and stock grower, being a man of energy, good judgment and progressive ideas. In 1865 he went forth in defence of the Union, having been a member of Company D, Eleventh Wisconsin Infantry, in which he was enrolled in February of that year. He proceeded to Montgomery, Alabama, and in the following June was taken ill and placed in a hospital. As soon as he had sufficiently recovered he was granted a furlough and returned home, receiving his honorable discharge at Madison, Wisconsin, September 29, 1865, and thereafter passing some time in Ohio recuperating his health. Mr. Salisbury now makes his home with his son, our subject; his wife having died Dec. 10, 1897.

William S. Salisbury, whose name initiates this review, was born on the homestead farm, in Willow township, July 9, 1865, and he was reared to manhood in this township where he has been continuously identified with agricultural pursuits from his youth to the present, his educational advantages having been those afforded in the public schools of his native county.

He is the owner of 80 acres of well improved and most arable land and in addition to general farming and stock growing, he is also prominently identified with the cheese manufacturing industry, in which connection Richland County has gained a high reputation. For about nine years past he was a member of the co-operative company organized for the prosecution of this line of enterprise, and in 1903 he established a cheese factory of his own, having since conducted and been the owner of the same, and being recognized as one of the leading manufacturers of high grade American cheese in this section of the state.

He is a citizen, loyal and liberal; is a reliable and enterprising business man, and takes a deep interest in all that tends to conserve the advancement and material and civic prosperity of his native county. In politics he is aligned with the Republican party and he and his wife are members of the Congregational church. November 17, 1897 Mr. Salisbury was united in marriage to Miss Ada L. Hatch, daughter of Lester M. Hatch, of whom individual mention is made in this publication. They have two children: Velma Ethel, and Beulah Mabel."
